OFFICE OF LEGISLAT	IVE COUNSEL
Tuesday - 16 June	e 1964
1. Ad	vised by Mr. Samuel Archibald,
Staff Director, House Foreign Operation	s and Government Information Subcommittee, that no hearings are to be Conferred with Mr. Archibald con	ncerning the questionnaire cent to several government departments and a	agencies which in part requested information concerning polygraph testing	accomplished by use of other than their own personnel and equipment.	Mr. Archibald agreed that he could foresee no difficulty in those instar	nces where we had provided assistance to other departments if those	departments in answering the and the state of t	had been aggisted by an banners of
